

Quality Policy of Kenergy Engineering Services LTD

It is the ultimate policy for Kenergy Engineering Services Ltd to execute its contracts effectively and safely in accordance with the client's specification and acceptable international standards. in order to constantly satisfy their expectations.

To implement this policy, KESL has established a Quality Management System which is in-line with ISO 9001:2015 to ensure adherence to client's codes, specifications as well as statutory and regulatory requirements.

The quality policy is available as documented information and appropriate to KESL context of Organization as defined in the quality manual with the managing director responsible for measurable objectives

It is the responsibility of the management of KESL to ensure that, the quality policy statement is communicated, understood and made available to all applicable interested parties identified by KESL.

IN OUR SERVICE DELIVERY OF:

- Pipeline Process Services
- Facility Maintenance
- Consultancy

The company continually improves the effectiveness of the QMS by appraising its objectives for continued suitability at scheduled management review meetings.

Managing Director

25th September, 2023